

FIU-2502 Children's Creative Learning Center at FIU

- (1) The Florida International University (University) Board of Trustees established the Children's Creative Learning Center (CCLC) an educational research center for child development, to:
 - a. Serve as an early childhood center for the children of students, employees, and other members of the University community;
 - b. Provide an opportunity for interested schools and colleges of the University to conduct educational research programs; and
 - c. Establish internship opportunities within CCLC.
- (2) The University President shall be responsible for the operation and supervision of the CCLC. The President may delegate this authority.
- (3) The Director of the CCLC shall be selected by the hiring official after consultation with the CCLC Advisory Board. The Director is responsible for the day-to-day operation and management of the CCLC.
- (4) The CCLC Advisory Board shall recommend Center policies and procedures, support the CCLC's mission, provide recommendations regarding matters brought forth by the CCLC Director, advocate for adequate resources to meet the operational needs of the Center, and enhance the CCLC's public standing.
 - a. The Advisory Board shall not exceed thirteen (13) members and consist of University faculty members, parents of children in the CCLC, and one (1) representative from the Student Government Association (SGA) chosen by the SGA President. Members of the community may be added to the Advisory Board based on their expertise. The Director shall serve as a non-voting ex officio member of the Advisory Board.
 - b. The Director shall recommend applicable policies and procedures to the President or his/her designee with input from the Advisory Board for approval. All approved policies and procedures shall be published in the CCLC's Family Handbook.
- (5) Admission of children into the CCLC shall be inclusive of race, ethnicity, socio-economic status, gender, and mental and physical ability. First priority for admission is given to children of University students. On a space available basis, second priority for admission is given to children of University faculty and staff, and third priority is given to children of alumni.
- (6) As an auxiliary within the Division of Academic and Student Affairs, the CCLC is partly funded by Capital Improvement Trust Fund Fees, user fees, Student Activity and Service Fees, grants, and donations in accordance with state law. The receipt and monitoring of all funds are in accordance with state law and regulations of the Board of Governors and University.

- (7) The CCLC may charge fees for child care and services. Fees may be staggered based on family income or the child’s parent/legal guardian’s relationship to the University. The fees shall be as follows:

Registration Fee	Semester	Affiliation	Amount
School Session	Fall - Summer A	All	$ 250.00
