

FIU-402 Admission to the University

1. Admission of students to Florida International University is within the jurisdiction of the University, but subject to the regulations of the Florida Board of Governors.
2. The University policies and procedures concerning admissions, including the decision notification process and the appeal process are posted on the University's website and student catalogs.
3. Admissions considerations do not include preferences for race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.
4. In making admissions decisions, the University must take into consideration the applicant's academic ability but may also consider other factors such as the applicant's creativity, talent, and character.
5. The University may deny admission or enrollment to an applicant because of the applicant's past misconduct on or off campus. Such decision can be made provided such denial is consistent with state and federal law.
6. An application or residency affidavit submitted by or on behalf of an applicant which contains false, fraudulent or incomplete statements may result in denial of admission, revocation of admission, or denial of registration and/or invalidation of University course credit.
7. Prior to registration, each applicant accepted for admission must submit appropriate medical documentation to include, but not be limited to, documentation of appropriate immunization required by the University. Exceptions may be granted pursuant to University policies. The University reserves the right to refuse registration to any applicant whose health record or report of medical examination indicates the existence of a condition which may be harmful to members of the University community.
